Glendale Folk & Heritage Festival. Over 150 performers with styles ranging from Folk and Bluegrass to Cowboy Poetry and Storytelling will entertain at Glendale Parks and Recreation's two-day Folk & Heritage Festival.

The festival will be held from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m., Saturday and Sunday, March 20 and 21 at the Sahuaro Ranch Park Historic Area, 9802 N. 59th Ave. Attendees are welcome to enjoy the entertainment on six stages and participate in free workshops, on topics such as ukulele techniques, mountain dulcimer, beginning autoharp and banjo led by accomplished entertainers.

This unique festival includes family entertainment, historic Sahuaro Ranch site tours, blacksmith demonstrations and a children's stage and activity area. Food and refreshments will be available for purchase. Admission and most activities are free. To volunteer or for more information, call (623) 930-4200.

Barrel District Town Talk.

Please join me for the Spring Barrel District Town Talk from 5 to 7 p.m. Wednesday, March 24 in the Glendale Adult Center's Palo Verde room, 5970 W. Brown St.

"Town Talk" will be held in an open-house format, which enables residents to stop by and speak with me anytime during the two-hour meeting.

At the meeting, citizens will also be able to speak with representatives from several city departments including Building Safety, Code Compliance, Community Partnerships, Fire, Library, Parks and Recreation, Police, Recycling, Sanitation, Transportation, Utilities and Water Conservation. Residents can pick up information about Census 2010 and myriad volunteer opportunities at the city of Glendale as well.

I hope you can stop by, enjoy some light refreshments and learn about Glendale.

Legislative Link. The City of Glendale invites residents to attend a legislative session update meeting on Thursday, March 18th. This update meeting is part of the free Legislative Link program that enables citizens to stay informed and closely track neighborhood-related matters and bills being discussed at the State Capitol.

Glendale's Neighborhood Legislative Link program not only keeps residents up to date on issues impacting their local community, it also provides citizens a way to actively engage themselves in the state law-making process.

Mayor Elaine Scruggs welcomes residents to participate in this Legislative Link meeting on Thursday, March 18th from 6 to 8 p.m. at the Glendale Adult Center, 5970 W. Brown St.

At the meeting, residents will receive an overview of:

- How the Arizona State Legislature works
- Who represents Glendale at the State Legislature
- How to track neighborhood issues being discussed at the State Legislature
- What issues are being discussed at the State Capitol

Residents are asked to register in advance of the meeting by calling (623) 930-2813 or via email at dburt@glendaleaz.com by Tuesday, March 16th. Residents unable to attend the meeting, but interested in receiving e-mail updates, can call the Intergovernmental Programs Office at (623) 930-2813.

GU Grad Tour of Public Safety Training Center. Glendale University (GU) graduates wanting to learn more about the city's public safety departments are encouraged to enroll in the newest GU graduate class, which will provide a tour of the Glendale Regional Public Safety Training Center. This free class is scheduled for Saturday, March 27, from 9 to 11 a.m. and is limited to 30 students.

Located at 11550 W. Glendale Ave., the center is a 57-acre training facility that offers the latest public safety technology, a driving track as well as a pistol range. This class will offer participants with a tour of the entire facility, which will include demonstrations of the equipment.

Click here to register online, or call (623) 930-2868 to receive an application by mail or fax. Registration ends on Friday, March 19.

Benjamin Franklin: In Search of a Better World

The American Library Association (ALA) Public Programs Office, in collaboration with the National Endowment for the Humanities and the Benjamin Franklin Tercentenary, is sponsoring the traveling exhibition, "Benjamin Franklin: In Search of a Better World." It makes a six-week stop at the Glendale Main Library, 5959 W. Brown St., officially starting March 25.

The exhibit gives public audiences the opportunity to explore and to talk about Franklin's life, his contributions to the founding of this country, and his high standards for work, citizenship, and contribution to community. It looks at his background, his self-education, and his philosophical and religious beliefs and their effect on his work and life. It shows Franklin in the context of the eighteenth century and as a product of his times—a brilliant and rather unconventional product of his times—rather than as the venerable bespectacled and grandfatherly figure with whom we are all familiar.

The following free programs have been planned at the Main Library to complement the exhibit:

- Sunday, March 14
2 p.m., Auditorium
Benjamin Franklin:
"National Treasure" (Film)
- Thursday, March 25
7 p.m., Auditorium
Benjamin Franklin's Glass
Harmonica (Live at the Library)
- April 2010
From Ben's Pen: Notable
Quotes from Benjamin Franklin
(National Poetry Month)
- Saturday, April 17
10 a.m., Benjamin Franklin
Community Service Saturday
for Teens
- Saturday, April 17, 12:30 p.m.,
Quick Craft: Benjamin Franklin
Flying Kite Craft
